

SILVINA IGLESIAS

PRE-IB SPANISH 2

IB SPANISH 5

ROOM 1171

I have a Master of Arts in Teaching (Foreign Language Education / ESOL) from USF and a Bachelor of Architecture (Architecture) from Buenos Aires University. I have won awards (Most Successful Latina Award Recipient) from USF. I have published a textbook for Introductory Spanish, called Explorando, through Top Hat Publishing (2017) which has been adopted in many Universities across the USA. I have presented at state (FFLA) and regional conferences (SETESOL). I have been a part-time instructor at the University of Tampa, teaching three courses: International Practicum, TESOL II as well as Foundations of ESOL. I have been involved in various aspects of leadership and curriculum; eg, I was the Spanish Curriculum Coordinator for the International Baccalaureate Program in the Magnet School Assistant Program in Pinellas County

“The IB program as maintained by the global IB administration in Europe is rigorous and is a program designed to facilitate higher order & independent thinking in enrolled IB students. When enrolled in such a program as IB, students have the opportunity to acquire high levels of proficiency in a foreign language. ”
